TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SOUTH SOMERSET Funding sought for Chard projects

SOUTH Somerset District Council (SSDC) hopes government funding will bring forward major projects in the eastern part of Chard.

The council has started the process of seeking government funding for projects in Chard Eastern Development Area, including employment land, roads and an extension of the Stop Line Way cycle path. Ultimately a road link would be created between the Millfield Industrial Estate and the A30 and would help to relieve traffic congestion at the town centre traffic lights.

This area of Chard is earmarked in the Chard Regeneration Scheme as the designated area for the development for both housing and employment land in Chard over the Local Plan period (to 2028).

SSDC has already received one planning application for residential development in the Chard Eastern Development Area (the Morrish application to the north of the A30 is for 78 units), and is expecting a further five applications in the latter part of 2015 and early 2016.

These applications are likely to seek permissions for a total of approximately 900 houses, but it should be noted this amount of housing in Chard will be delivered in stages over a phased period of time.

SEATON Council says no to wedge plans

A PACKED chamber saw Seaton Town Council object to a developer's third attempt to build on what is known as the green wedge to the east of Harepath Road.

Having had two planning applications refused, one on appeal, Seaton Park (Devon) Ltd. has submitted a third application (outline).

It is for a mixed-use development of up to 150 houses, 75 of which would be affordable; office space of up to 5,050 square metres; light/general industrial space of up to 3,500 square metres; open space and associated roads and infrastructure, including a main spine road.

The Enterprise Suite in Seaton Town Hall was bursting at the seams on Monday, October 19th, when the town council's planning committee met to discuss the developer's bid for third time lucky.

Members of the public, including residents of nearby Colyford, spoke against the application before recently co-opted councillor Martin Shaw reeled off a list of objections of his own.

The applicant did not appear to have a representative at the meeting, and nobody spoke in favour of the proposal.

The planning application can be viewed online by searching for application 15/2188/MOUT and comments are welcome until October 27th.

From the editor's chair Who's laughing now...

CHARD has had a bad press over the years and has been the butt of jokes about how rough the town is and how its crime figures match those of the most violent cities in the UK.

We have all had a laugh at Chard's expense. If you've got two ears you're a cissy; Kate Adie's a lollipop lady in Chard; third prize in a raffle was an alibi for three weeks. Cheap jokes.

I suspect the people of Chard don't find it so funny; they certainly don't recognise their town in some of the headlines that have given the town a bad name over the years.

I've covered a few jobs in my time in Chard and have always found it a friendly place to work. I also spent a short time as vice-chairman of Chard Town Football Club, a role I thoroughly enjoyed. Great people.

Some will argue that Chard's reputation has been detrimental in attracting investment so it's pleasing to report in our Chard edition this week that South Somerset District Council has made Chard its priority in bidding for resources.

Portfolio holder Councillor Jo Roundell Greene says it is "excellent news for Chard that there is so much interest in the development of the town".

Chard could see an explosion of new homes in the coming years and hopefully this will be matched by the infrastructure to cope.

♦ A GOVERNMENT consultant last week advocated that hospitals should build their own care homes to unblock beds occupied by old people recovering from operations.

Here's an idea. Don't close community hospitals. It will be a lot cheaper.

AXMINSTER Culvert to widen

THE much delayed widening of the Millbrook culvert has been pencilled in to start work in early 2016, Devon County Council has said in a letter to Axminster Town Council.

Plans to increase the flood capacity by widening the culvert – a structure that allows water to flow under a road – at Willhay Lane was first proposed in 2013 and has faced a string of delays.

At an Axminster Town Council meeting in July last year, town, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding read a letter to fellow councillors saying that the plans had been delayed by at least six months due to added complications in the design work and that Devon County Council were going to carry out additional analysis to ensure that the completed scheme wouldn't increase the level of flood risk elsewhere or compromise the railway.

Phase one of the proposal will be to install a flood defence wall along the southern bank on Millbrook as it approaches Willhay Lane.

HONITON Clear for carnival

FLASH Gordon, Pac-Man and a tribute to Antarctic explorer Captain Scott were all some of the fantastic entrants in this year's Honiton Carnival.

The event, which drew entries from across Devon, Dorset and Somerset, has always been a firm favourite in the carnival calendar, and this year saw well over 60 entries.

Honiton Carnival chairman Grant Miller said: "Overall the carnival was a great success. It started dead on 7:30 under Mike Salter's instructions.

"A lot of young members from the community entered this year which was very pleasing as the children are the next generation of the carnival.

"A huge thank you to all entrants, supporters, marshals and the carnival committee because without them we would not have a carnival at all.

"Also, thanks to the members of the public who contributed to our collection, which currently stands at over £2,000."

SIDMOUTH Good chance of funding for beach

COUNCIL officers, coastal engineers and local community and environmental representatives have been told that their work as part of the Sidmouth and East Beach Management Plan steering group is "very encouraging" but there is still more to do.

The Sidmouth and East Beach Management Plan (BMP) project was commissioned by East Devon District Council (EDDC) in partnership with the Environment Agency (EA), Sidmouth Town Council, Cliff Road Action Group and the South West Strategic Regional Coastal Monitoring Programme.

The steering group is chaired by deputy leader of EDDC, Councillor Andrew Moulding, who said the most important point to come out of the meeting was the realisation the group has a very good case of obtaining funding for future projects.

The BMP Project has also received the endorsement of Martin Davies, Flood and Coastal Risk Management Advisor at the EA.

Once the preferred options have been agreed, EDDC will apply in 2016 to the EA for central government funds to carry them out.

OTTERY ST MARY Award to honour local champion

OTTERY St Mary has launched the 'John Gaffney Young People's Writing Award' in memory of one of the town's most dedicated community champions.

John Gaffney was a much respected local journalist, and founder and editor of the award winning parish magazine the Ottery Gazette, who passed away in June this year.

After his untimely passing an idea was suggested by local resident Philip Algar that an annual writing award for young people be named in his memory.

Following Mr Algar's initiative, Ottery Town Council has agreed that the competition be held annually and the winner will get £50 in cash and £25 in book tokens. There will prizes for the runners-up as well.

Mr Algar said he hoped the award would inspire creativity amongst Ottery's younger community.

WI plants 100th anniversary tree

MEMBERS of Axe River WI gathered on Minster Green to plant a tree in celebration of the WI movement's 100th anniversary.

Axe River WI has a long way to go before reaching 100 years, having been formed in November two years ago.

But it is a vibrant branch, the tree planters saying: "We are a force to be reckoned with."

About the tree planting, member Beverly Love explained: "Just as a side story, the original Axminster WI, which has been closed for quite a few years now, planted a cherry tree on Minster Green to celebrate the year 2000.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"Unfortunately, this tree died recently and was removed.

"As there was a commemorative plaque attached to it, we were informed of its removal and then asked if we would like to replace it.

"We thought it would be a lovely idea to plant another tree to celebrate the centenary of the WI at some point during this year."

The new tree was planted on Wednesday, October 21st.

Coast Path work part of new nationwide scheme

WORK is set to start on the Devon coastline as part of Natural England's plans to create an England Coast Path, it has been announced.

The news is welcomed by South West Coast Path Association as it will see the implementation of new 'coastal access' legislation that will help to improve the route and safeguard its future.

Association secretary Steve Church said: "The announcement made by Natural England is great news for us as it will help to secure the existing route of the Coast Path for the stretches across Exmoor National Park and from Kingswear to Lyme Regis.

"The Coast Path has taken a battering in the past few years following the severe winter storms, particularly in Devon and Cornwall, where the coast is very vulnerable to coastal erosion, and when a section of path is lost, it can take years before it is re-opened.

"This not only impacts on walkers, both locals and visitors, it can also have a huge effect on local businesses who rely on the trade that walkers bring.

Once these new coastal access provisions are implemented, not only will the authorities be able to re-instate the Coast Path in weeks or months, it will also be much cheaper, and so less of a strain on their already stretched budgets.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"Also welcome is that once the legislation is implemented it will formalise, for the first time, the public's right to access most beaches and headlands – whereas currently landowners have the right to prevent the public from using them."

Whilst there will be some new paths created, it is expected that in most locations the route of the South West Coast Path will remain unchanged. Any changes will be in those few locations where the Path is currently routed away from the coast, but there are seaward fields, woods, or coastal slopes (but not gardens) that would provide a better walking experience. Landowners also benefit from reduced liability for any accidents that may occur when people are exercising their new rights.

To meet the government's commitment of completing a Coast Path around the entire coast of England by 2020, it is thought that work will also need to start on other sections of the South West Coast Path shortly.

Stockland teacher is the best in the country

A STOCKLAND primary school teacher has been named the best in the country at the annual 'Teaching Oscars'.

Caroline Ainsworth won big at the Pearson Teaching Awards as she was honoured with The Award for Teacher of the Year in a Primary School 2015, for the exceptional work that she does day in, day out.

Caroline was nominated for the award by a group of parents who wanted to demonstrate their appreciation for her work. Originally specialising in English and Literacy, she is an outstanding primary school teacher who also teaches Art and Music across the whole school. But it's her work in Maths that has been applauded with parents of school children raving about the exceptional ability that Caroline instils in the children to enjoy the subject. Caroline is also a mentor to colleagues both at school and across the county and is in great demand as a subject expert, sharing her expertise and successful strategies with a wide range of fellow professionals. Parents and colleagues said they are very fortunate to have Caroline at the school.

On being presented with the award, Caroline said: "When you've been teaching for a long time its very nice to be recognised like this, but I think this is more a reflection of several factors. I think it's a reflection of the community, the teachers, the children and the parents who all offer each other fantastic support. It's as much their award as it is mine. Although it is always lovely to win something."

The awards were announced at a glittering awards ceremony at London's Royal Opera House, hosted by TV historian Dan Snow.

In all, 11 Gold Plato winners were selected across the UK, chosen from thousands of nomination made this year.

Oscar Winning actress Emma Thompson, President of the Teaching Awards said: "I am genuinely proud and honoured to be the president of the teaching awards. I owe so much of what I've done to my fantastic teachers at school and university and it is exciting to join in celebrating what is probably the most important profession of them all."

Rod Bristow, President of UK and Core Markets, said: "Great Teaching makes the biggest difference to learning. Great teachers support young people, but they need and deserve our support so they too can express the vital confidence they give to young people. That's why I'm proud of the Pearson Teaching Awards and thrilled to be joining the celebrations. We are celebrating all these excellent teachers across the country who work tirelessly to change lives every day."

The Pearson Teaching Awards is open to every school in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The awards were established by Lord Putnam CBE in 1998 and are managed by the Teaching Awards Trust, an independent charity. The Trust's mission is to celebrate excellence in education.

Apology to Colyton Grammar School

PULMAN'S View would like to make an unreserved apology to Colyton Grammar School following the unauthorised use of the school crest in a property advertisement in last week's issue.

The inclusion of the school crest in the advertisement may have given the false impression that the property in question was being marketed on behalf of the school. This is not the case. We apologise for any confusion and embarrassment this may have caused and have taken action to ensure that such an error does not happen again.

By means of an apology, Pulman's View will be making a donation that will be shared between Colyton Grammar School Senior Prefect Team's charity, Water Aid, and the Parents Association's fundraising campaign for a new science laboratory.

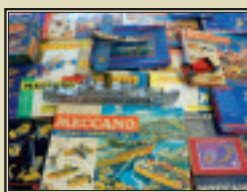

We look forward to continuing our good relationship with Colyton Grammar School, reporting on the many positive stories generated by the school.

Trying out everything

B! HEALTH&FITNESS has to offer!

MY fourth week at B! Health & Fitness and I got a taster for some of the classes on offer. I started on Monday morning at 9:15am with RIGorous. What a way to start the week that is! It's a bit like circuits but using the equipment in and around the rig on the gym floor. We had a group of nine people in the class and so had nine different stations to move around with a 40 second work out on each. I managed the first two circuits relatively comfortably but the third and fourth times round were a real challenge! I won't lie, it is tough, but you can go at your own pace and Craig, who took the class, is full of encouragement and helps you push yourself as much as you can.

Tuesday at 6pm was Shape and Tone with Duncan in the fitness studio, which was another great class. It wasn't as intense as RIGorous but it was still a really great workout. The class was an hour long but broken down into different sections, starting with legs, then moving on to chest, arms, shoulders and abs so it works the whole body. I was a little achy from RIGorous the day before but after Shape and Tone I actually felt much better.

I was back again on Wednesday for Power Burn, also at 6pm with Duncan as the usual instructor Cheryl was on holiday. I had been warned by some of the others that Power Burn was really hard work, and they weren't joking. I'm not sure I have ever sweat quite as much as I did during that class. The best thing about the class is that it works totally against your own body weight. It's a really intense CV (cardio vascular) workout and is a very popular class (despite Duncan's very dubious choice of music!) as you certainly burn a lot of calories in those 45 minutes.

Even though the classes are really hard work, they are only as hard as you push yourself. There is no pressure to keep up with everyone, you can go at your own pace and if it is too much you can have a little break then join back in when you're ready. There were times when I wanted to stop but I found being in a group environment encourages you to push each other on. There's a really good atmosphere in all the classes, the instructors make it a lot of fun and there's a really friendly group of people that go regularly who every day asked me how I was finding each class, which was really nice. That really is one of the things that in my opinion makes B! Health & Fitness such a great place to work out. Everyone is so friendly at the atmosphere in the gym and the classes is great. It makes you want to come back, which when it comes to staying fit and healthy is definitely a very good thing!

I had Thursday as a rest day but was feeling really good and was back in on Friday for a full body personal training session to end the week. For the first time in a while I had no muscle soreness, despite some very vigorous classes earlier in the week, a sure sign that my strength and fitness are improving, aided of course by plenty of sleep and a healthy diet. Friday's session was brilliant. Tough, but brilliant! For the first time I could really see how I have improved and I managed to shoulder press twice the weight I did to start with which gave me a real buzz. Duncan pushed me through some CV work to finish the session on the bike doing interval sprints, which again was an area where having him there as a personal trainer made such a massive difference. It allowed me to focus on keeping the speed up over 120 revolutions per minute throughout the sprint intervals while he watched the clock and pushed me through it.

I was obviously pretty exhausted after the session but I felt so good. I know I have made huge improvements over the last 2 weeks and the personal training has played a big part in that. It's been really intense but the sense of achievement and general well-being that I have now is immense.

I'm going back in on Monday for a final fitness test to see what impact the last 4 weeks has had on me. I'm confident the results will back up how good I'm feeling!

Care service invites public to 'meet the team'

A 'MEET The Team' event is to be held by Axminster Care Service, inviting the public to have a closer look and, hopefully, become actively involved with the charity.

The event will be held from 10am on Saturday, October 31st in The Senior Citizens' Centre.

Treasurer Jacqui Thomas said: "Join us for a coffee and cake and find out more about our charitable services."

"Find out how the funds we raise are used to support those most vulnerable and organisations in need of support."

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A recent volunteer recruitment drive yielded a pleasing result.

Jacqui said: "The search has resulted in a steady stream of people coming forward to assist with many aspects of the charity."

"From driving people to their hospital appointments, answering the telephone and co-ordinating drivers, to assisting at Charity Togs."

"Charity Togs has also recruited three student volunteers from Axe Valley Community College and Colyton Grammar School as part of their Duke of Edinburgh Award.

"One student volunteer enjoyed his placement so much, that he has decided to stay on after completing his award."

"They have each made themselves very valuable members of the Togs team."

Charity Togs has seen an increase in clothing and household items being donated in recent months and all are very appreciative of the good quality items received.

However, an old problem has resurfaced.

Jacqui explained: "There has been a growing problem with the shop being used as a 'dumping point' for broken and unsaleable items.

"This, unfortunately, has resulted in the charity having to pay to have the items disposed of, taking valuable funds away from the charity which would otherwise be allocated to those in need within our community."

Anyone interested in finding out more about Axminster Care Service will have the opportunity on Saturday, October 31st.

As well as finding out more about the charity, there will be an opportunity to view the brand new website, which is due to go live that same day, along with the new Facebook and Twitter accounts.

More information about the event is available on 01297 35550.

River Cottage wins employer award

AXMINSTER-based River Cottage Ltd has won the regional National Apprenticeship Awards 2015 (Medium Employer of the Year category).

The awards challenge apprenticeship employers and apprentices across England to come forward and show how apprenticeships have made a real difference to their organisations and careers respectively.

The South West winners and highly commended entries were announced at an awards ceremony on October 13th, organised by the National Apprenticeship Service and held at Somerset County Cricket Club.

Sue Husband, Director of the National Apprenticeship Service, said:

"Apprenticeships deliver for businesses, individuals and the economy. "They enable people to gain the skills and knowledge they need to succeed, in some cases up to degree level, while working and earning. "And for businesses, hiring apprentices is a productive and effective way for them to grow their own talent by developing a motivated, skilled and qualified workforce."

Following the regional ceremonies, the winners from each category in all 11 areas of England will have their entries sent for national judging, and three from each category will be selected as national finalists.

Historic headstone refurbished

AN historic headstone in Axminster has undergone a much-needed repaint.

The headstone of Axminster Carpets founder Thomas Whitty is located in the United Reformed Church yard.

It is included in the tourist information centre's blue plaque trail of Axminster landmarks.

Jill Ruddick of Axminster TIC explained how the repaint came about, saying: "Volunteer John Jeffery

HISTORIC: Elders of the church, TIC representatives and town councillors were pleased with the end result carried a blue trail walk with a group of visitors when he noticed that the headstone was faded and difficult to read.

"We asked permission from the elders of the church, which was given, and got in touch with Norton Memorials here in Axminster."

Following the photo call on Friday October 15th, she said: "It is there and it is looking good. A job well done."

Low flu 'jab' uptake worries medics

AXMINSTER GP Phil Taylor and his colleagues are concerned about a dip in flu vaccination uptake for a second consecutive year.

The GPs at Axminster Medical Practice recommend flu jabs because people in the risk groups are at increased risk of serious illness if hit by influenza.

For older people this is particularly important because an attack of influenza on its own can result in a hospital admission with all the potential complications which can result.

About the uptake in Axminster, Dr Taylor said: "This and last year it has been considerably lower [than usual]."

When asked for reasons, he gave two possibilities, saying: "We think it is possible people got the idea that it doesn't work because last year's [jab] proved less effective."

"Also, there hasn't been an epidemic recently, so there may be a false sense of security."

When put on the spot and asked if he was leading by example having had a jab himself, he replied with a resounding "Yes".

Explaining the effectiveness of the jab, he said: "Some people will still catch influenza despite vaccination although, in some cases, this will just be a cold."

"The flu jab only protects against the most common predicted strains of flu but these can vary widely from year to year and sometimes, like last year, the protection only works against a lower percentage of strain."

"However, this means that those who had the jab were still protected against some strains of flu."

"In fact, if you have a flu jab every year you can build up a level of immunity to all strains of flu."

"As more people are regularly vaccinated we build up a 'herd immunity, which makes it more difficult for the virus to circulate."

"In effect you are both protecting yourself and helping to protect others if you have your annual jab."

"You may remember the scare around Avian Influenza a few years ago."

■ CONCERNED: Dr Phil Taylor

"This was a much more serious version of influenza."

"It is thought that people who have had the seasonal influenza vaccine regularly may develop some resistance to bird flu and other more serious strains."

ELIGIBLE GROUPS

You are eligible to receive a free flu jab if you:

- are 65 years of age or over
- are pregnant
- have certain medical conditions
- are very overweight
- are living in a long-stay residential care home or other long-stay care facility
- receive a carer's allowance, or you are the main carer for an elderly or disabled person whose welfare may be at risk if you fall ill
- are a healthcare worker with direct patient contact, or a social care worker.

Mayor agrees to summarise surgeries

AXMINSTER Mayor Douglas Hull will provide a summary of each town council surgery he holds, following a request by fellow town councillor Paul Hayward, writes Anders Larsson.

The request came after Mayor Hull had denied a resident to raise a second issue during the town council public forum on Monday, October 12th.

Resident Ken Grey was told to come and see Mayor Hull at his Thursday morning surgery instead, which didn't go down well with the former.

When taking office as mayor this spring, councillor Hull restricted public forum to one issue per person to streamline town council meetings.

The decision wasn't without critics, but councillor Hull said democracy would not be eroded because efficient alternatives were available.

Following Mayor Hull's exchange with Mr Gray, councillor Paul Hayward pointed out that any issues raised at surgeries would not reach a wider audience, thereby not getting the publicity it might deserve.

Councillor Hayward added: "We don't know what you say to these people."

"There could be a whole raft of questions that never comes to our attention."

"Could we have a summary of the sort of things you are being asked?"

Mayor Hull agreed, replying: "A very reasonable request, Sir."

New section of Stop Line Way opens

THE Stop Line Way walking and cycling route has opened another section to traffic.

The one-kilometre section, from Seaton to Colyford, has been developed by Devon County Council over the past four months.

The section was granted planning permission in September 2011 and provides an off-road connection from the cemetery, near Marsh Lane in Seaton, to Colyford Common near the junction of Seaton Road / Popes Lane in Colyford.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, the Devon County Council Cabinet member with responsibility for cycling, said: "The Stop Line Way has been years in the planning but it is gradually taking shape and this is another important piece in the jigsaw of the route through Devon."

"This trail is a great asset to communities in East Devon and will enable visitors and local residents to enjoy this part of the county on foot or by bike."

Councillor Sara Randall Johnson, County Councillor for Honiton St Michael's, said: "The people of Colyford and Colyton are delighted that locals and visitors alike can now cycle or walk to Seaton on this new and exciting route."

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

"I am continuing to work with the Burgesses of Colyford on the next off road section to Cownhayne Lane and look forward to its completion."

Councillor Jim Knight, local County Councillor for Seaton Coastal, added: "I am delighted that another section of the Stop Line Way has come to fruition, and residents and visitors with their children can now travel off road to enjoy the sights offered by both Colyford and Seaton."

"The final sections in our area still await completion and I do seriously hope that they will be completed in the very near future."

East Devon District Council Environment Portfolio Holder, Councillor Iain Chubb, was equally enthusiastic and said: "This is a fantastic new visitor attraction for the council's Seaton Wetlands, which we hope will bring lots of additional visitors to this wildlife haven, as well as the Jurassic Coast."

"The new cycleway will open up the many visitor facilities offered by the Seaton Wetlands, such as bird hides, sand martin cliff and pond dipping area, which together with the new information centre will enable cyclists to spend an entire day in a beautiful setting.

"The council's Countryside Team, which is based on the Wetlands, will be available to give information about the site and provide details of events and activities, which cyclists can get involved with throughout the year."

The Stop Line Way, which is part of the National Cycle Network Route 33, is being developed in sections.

Trafalgar Way opened in December 2009, Alder car under the A35 into Kilminster parish opened in September 2011, and Cloakham in Axminster to Weycroft in the Axe Valley opened in December 2012.

The route of the trail closely follows, and is named after, the Second World War defences built following the evacuation of the Allies from Dunkirk as the Devon and Cornwall coast was considered too long to defend.

Many of the concrete pillboxes and anti-tank gun emplacements remain along the line and can be seen from parts of the cycle route.

In Devon, the route stretches from Seaton Promenade to the county boundary passing through Axminster and will be a largely traffic-free footway and cycleway.

When complete the trail will form a 70-mile link from the Bristol Channel to Lyme Bay, passing through Devon, Somerset, and Dorset.

Harbour Road fire Firefighters called on for stuck lift

TWO fire engines were mobilised to a fire against the side of a building in Harbour Road, Seaton.

The alarm was raised just after 6.30pm on Sunday, October 18th and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "There was a fire in an outside storage area of a takeaway restaurant."

"Crews got to work extinguishing the fire using a hose reel jet. Approximately two metres of the side of the building was damaged by heat and smoke. The cause of the fire was accidental."

FIREFIGHTERS came to the aid of a people in a stuck lift in a Harbour Road property.

Firefighters were despatched just after 4.45pm on Wednesday October 21st, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews released the two persons using small tools."

Seaton Jurassic is on the way

THE main structure and amphitheatre of the Seaton Jurassic complex are complete.

Construction work started in September 2014 and the next phase involves the installation of the exhibition halls, a café and signage, which should be finished by February and ready for opening in spring.

Harry Barton, Chief Executive of Devon Wildlife Trust, said: "This is a huge moment for East Devon.

"Come to Seaton and see for yourself what has changed. Seaton Jurassic, which has been dreamed of and talked about for more than a decade, has become real.

"It is a tribute to the vision and tenacity of the local community and everyone who kept faith in this great project."

Councillor Philip Skinner, East Devon District Council's portfolio holder for the economy commented: "This is such an exciting project and I am delighted that after many years of very hard work, it's nearing completion.

"The positive partnership working between the council, Devon Wildlife Trust, Devon County Council, the town council and others has really paid off and I'm sure that the centre will be something we can all be proud of.

"It's a great example of how

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

East Devon District Council is making good use of its land to bring huge economic and regeneration benefits to the town. This has been a big investment by the district council and demonstrates our commitment to Seaton."

Mike Ruiter, Seaton Jurassic Centre Manager, added: "I'm very impressed with the building.

"The drawings looked great and the real thing is even better. During the build I had the pleasure of visiting the site regularly and each time felt a sense of wonder.

"I can't wait to share that feeling with others when we open next year. This is a very big moment for us and, indeed, Seaton as a whole.

"People in town have lobbied for this new and exciting attraction for over a decade, so this is an important milestone."

Seaton Jurassic aims to attract more than 50,000 people each year.

The centre is owned by East Devon District Council and forms part of the council's regeneration activities aimed at boosting the local economy.

Situated on England's first Natural World Heritage Site, Seaton Jurassic will celebrate the area's unique local geological, coastal and marine heritage.

The centre, which is operated by Devon Wildlife Trust, will engage people with East Devon's amazing local natural environment.

The project has been chiefly funded by East Devon District Council, Devon County Council, Seaton Town Council, Heritage Lottery Fund, Coastal Communities Fund, Garfield Weston Foundation, Devon Wildlife Trust, Fine Family Foundation, Jurassic Coast Trust, Blue Marine Foundation and the Seaton Visitor Centre Trust.

East Devon District Council is the lead partner, budget holder and main funder of Seaton Jurassic, contributing £1.9m to the project.

The council is managing the capital budget for the project and will own and build the centre. Devon County Council is also a funding partner, contributing £600,000 along with Seaton Town Council, which has contributed £25,000.

Other key funding partners are Devon Wildlife Trust, the Heritage Lottery Fund (£650,000) and Coastal Communities Fund (£300,000).

Garfield Weston Foundation and The Fine Family Foundation have all pledged significant grants.

HONITON Carnival was once again a spectacular event with over 60 entries and £2,000 collected. Returning East Devon favourites Sid Vale Carnival Club and Gemini CC from Somerset won several awards each as the carnival was jam packed with spectacular floats, tableaux and walking entrants.

This year saw an influx of children and young adults in the procession as the carnival spirit spread through the entire town, packing the streets with people. Just before the carnival started the Honiton Samba Band walked the route playing their instruments to get the party atmosphere going.

The carnival saw all manner of entries this year from all over the south west. From Cops and Robbers to Flash Gordon – Devon, Dorset and Somerset were all well represented with their displays. Next stop on the East Devon Carnival Circuit will be Ottery St Mary Carnival on Saturday, October 31st.

AXMINSTER AFC Youth Section

Full report from the Youth Tournament, Saturday 24th October
U8's, U9's, U13's - Tiger Way, Chard Road, Axminster, Devon, EX13 5HN

THERE were plenty of smiling faces despite the blustery autumn conditions as Axminster Town staged a feast of youth football on Saturday morning with parents and supporters spoilt for choice with matches on both of the immaculate new pitches at the Tiger Way Ground.

Honiton U13 Axminster Town

A typical blustery and wet Autumn day the young Tigers roared to a 7-0 victory. They scored early on and this set the trend for the rest of the game, basically one way traffic leaving the defence very little to do.

Going forward Axminster looked a superb with goals from Billy Knox (4), Charlie Bye (2) and Zack Featherstone

Axminster Town U9 Lympstone & Exmouth Youth

THE first match against Lympstone saw the away team take the lead but the young Tigers, playing good football, went into 2-1 lead with goals from Bailey Galloway and Benjamin Morgan.

Axminster went further ahead through Billy Fowler first goal for the team. Lympstone came back into the game for a short spell, but another goal from Fowler made it 4-2 and they eventually ran out comfortable 4-3 winners.

The second match against a very strong Exmouth side in ever worsening conditions saw the Tigers battle hard to get to half time at 1-1 through a goal from Bailey Galloway.

The second half was a good contest but the side from Exmouth finished the stronger. Axminster added a second goal through Billy Fowler but ended up losing 4-2.

Axminster Town U8 v Cullompton Rangers & Wanderers

In the first game against Cullompton Rangers the young Tigers put in a great performance with goals from Toby James (2), Owen Clifton (2) and Christian Dixon scoring in a 6-0 win. Oscar Harris showed some good tackling in midfield in the first half then some good saves in goal in the second!

The second game was a different matter against a physically stronger Cullompton Wanderers team.

The Tigers, with Matthew Reed excelling in midfield, went 2-0 down early on, and although they fought hard to bring it back to 2-1 with a fine finish from Toby James, it seemed to galvanise the opposition, as they went on to score two more and run out comfortable 4-1 winners. On the whole the Tigers had a decent game

The Under 5s, 6s & 7s

The youngest group of Tigers came together for training at the weekend with their typical energy and enthusiasm, had great fun, and at the same time learned that little bit more about the game of football.

The club welcomes children who would like to get involved, so if your child is between the ages of 3 and 17 come on down to Tiger Way on a Saturday morning at 9am, meet the coaches and join in the fun, bringing with you boots and shin pads. The club looks forward to seeing you.

ALL SAINTS

FAIRGROUNDS in Wartime was the subject of the All Saints & District WI October meeting.

Writer Kay Townsend gave a lively account of growing up in a fairground family. When war was declared fairs, cinemas and theatres were closed. Eventually the Government agreed that fairs could stay open until 10pm. All stalls had to be shrouded in canvas; the big wheel, helter skelter and chairplanes only operated in daylight. There were shortages of prizes, metal for spares, and ammunition for shooting stalls. As men were called up, women ran the fairs. When the war ended Kay's family celebrated with a party on the dodgems.

The next meeting of the All Saints & District WI is an Open Meeting, with the Free Wheelers, on Tuesday, 10th November at 2.30 in All Saints village hall. All are welcome.

COLYFORD

COLYFORD WI members enjoyed a ploughman's lunch followed by apple pie, organised by the committee before their October meeting.

Entertainment was by Sue Althorpe and Helen who distributed percussion instruments and encouraged audience participation as they sang old favourite songs. Later members heard that the cake stall at the Goose Fayre had raised over £200.

Names were taken for the Group Quiz at Beer and details given about the Autumn Council and Autumn Group meetings.

A visit to Sidmouth Garden Centre for coffee was announced and a Christmas meal at Lyme Regis Golf Club. Cards distributed to members this month included

National Trust talk

THE Axe Valley Centre of the National Trust are starting their new season with an illustrated talk by Bruce Upton entitled 'The Power of Advertising'. This talk will take place at Colyford Memorial Hall on Wednesday, 16th September at 2.30 pm. Non-members welcome admission £2 (including tea/coffee and biscuit).

60th and 90th birthday cards and a 60th Wedding anniversary card. Prospective members, who are always welcome, should contact Liz Thomas (551335).

AXE RIVER

AXE River WI recently held its first coffee morning /fundraising event at the Church Rooms on Minster Green, Axminster. £300 was raised by the food, teas and coffees, raffle and selling of bric-a-brac, books and quality clothing.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, October 20th, 7.30-9.30pm at the Methodist Church Hall, Lyme Road, Axminster. A demonstration of flower arranging will be given by Sarah from Cloud9 Florist and the competition is an Autumn Poem by a member.

If you would like to come to a meeting or for more information, please contact President Ann Keane on 01297 59895.

THORNCOMBE

ON 13 October members of Thorncombe WI and guests from neighbouring WIs met in the village hall to celebrate Thorncombe WI's 98th birthday and to enjoy an afternoon of 'Flix in the Sticks', showing the film What We Did On Our Holidays with ice cream served in the interval by President Julia Snellock and Secretary Nora Arnold.

After the film the birthday cake was cut by Mrs Iris Hanchard Owen, Thorncombe's distinguished long-standing WI member, whose birthday it also was.

The next meeting is on 10 November at 2.30pm in the village hall, when Helen Rappaport will speak on 'The Four Daughters of the Tsar'. The competition will be for a Fabergé style egg, and the hosts will be Julie Honeybourne and Sheila Staples. New members and visitors will be most welcome.

Country store holds pet and equine day

MOLE Avon Town & Country Stores will be holding a Pet & Equine Event at its Axminster branch on Saturday, 31st October from 9am to 3pm. The event follows on from successful days that were held in all its stores last year – only this time even bigger and better.

The event will feature one-day-only special offers – 15 per cent off all equestrian products (including stable and grooming equipment, feeds, bedding, rugs and rider clothing to name a few), and 15 per cent off all pet products (including cat, dog and small animal food, accessories, toys, treats and wormers). Plus there will be 20 per cent off casual clothing from Ariat. These discounts are on top of any existing offers in store.

On the day there will be a horse rug sale and a host of local pet & equine attractions including Ferne Animal Sanctuary, Sara Ballarano Equine Art, Sled-Dog Support Network, Birdline UK Parrot Rescue, Debonair Dogs, Catherine Warren – Barefoot Trimmer. Visitors can also take in their rugs for cleaning or repair by Annie's Equine Laundry and meet Annie.

Specialists from the company's suppliers will also be in store offering help and trusted advice.

Don't forget – Mole Avon Town & Country Stores delivers FREE to most local postcodes on orders over £150 – ideal for all those bulky feed and bedding purchases.

Store Manager Rosie Herrod and her staff are excited to be hosting a fun-filled day and look forward to welcoming both new and existing customers in store.

For further information about this event or for any other queries please contact Mole Avon Town & Country Stores on 01297 32441 or email axminster@moleavon.cou.uk.

Preschoolers visit miniature ponies

■ BRANSCOMBE Pre School recently visited Munchkins Miniature Shetland Pony Rescue Centre, based in Southleigh.

As part of the pre-school's 'All about me' theme the children learned how to care for the horses from grooming to teeth care (pictured). They also learned why the horses were at the shelter and what to feed them.

The school thanked Munchkins for making them very welcome.

Devonshire Association talk

IAN intensely moving talk entitled 'The Boys', about a previously unregarded RAF aircraft crash on Dartmoor in March 1941, last week opened the 2015-16 season of the Devonshire Association's Axe Valley Branch meeting at the Peace Memorial Pavilion in Colyton.

The speaker John Lowe, a lecturer at Bicton College after his own RAF service, gave an account of his research about the loss of a Handley Page Hampden bomber on Hameldown above Widescombe in the Moor.

Starting with his discovery of a lonely granite monument with four carved initials, at 1,570 feet above sea level, over the years he put together the story of the forced night landing which added four young men to the list of 55,573 Bomber Command aircrew killed in WWII. The poignancy of his story redoubled when Mr Lowe introduced the Hampden four who lost their way returning from bombing U-Boat pens on the Bordeaux coast. Three were killed on impact. The pilot Robert Wilson, the youngest brother of Lord Nunburnholme and at 25 the eldest of his crew, was pulled out of his cockpit alive and but never regained consciousness.

Seaton Probus AGM and photo competition

CLUB President, John Harding, chaired the meeting on October 21st. Reports on all fronts were positive, indicating good member participation and a strong financial position. The Club Christmas lunch is planned for Wednesday, 9th December – new members welcome. Contact: 01297 21872

Tim Hopson was the worthy winner of the annual Photographic Competition. Well done Tim!

Next meeting 4th November, St. Gregory's Hall at 10am.

Community access defibrillator at Axe Yacht Club

THE Axe Yacht Club has funded an Automated External Defibrillator, which has been installed outside the main door to the Clubhouse at Axmouth Harbour.

The defibrillator is registered on the 999 scheme with the South West Ambulance Service NHS Trust, who advised the Club about the purchase, installation and registration. Should a cardiac arrest occur in the vicinity of the Harbour, or at the western end of Seaton beach, a person calling 999 will be directed to the location of the device and provided with the access code for the cabinet by the 999 call handler.

On Saturday, 17th October, Justin Sharples, from the Community Responder Section at the South West Ambulance Service Trust Headquarters, visited the Club and conducted a defibrillator awareness session, which allowed the large group of Club members present to see how the devices are used and to have a go with a training device. Many then took advantage of the opportunity to ask questions about how the system works and how it increases the likelihood of recovery. Justin indicated that on average between six and eight defibrillators are used each day in Devon, with twenty one being the highest number recorded on one day.

■ AYC members David and Jenny Hayward look 'inside the box'

Honiton art demonstration

THE ever-popular artist Charles Evans entertained a full house at Honiton Art Society's first meeting of the Autumn.

He produced two pictures, a landscape with sunlit cornfield and a seascape, during a very humorous and enjoyable demonstration. Charles believes in working with a limited palette and usually no more than four traditional brushes. In his own words, he was straight in "slapping on the paint" – blending with a finger it was obvious why he wore disposable gloves!

Membership Secretary, Brenda Jebson, standing in for the chairman, thanked Charles for a most entertaining afternoon.

The next meeting is on Monday, November 9th

■ THE artist Charles Evans

when Paul Weaver will give a demonstration 'Street Scene in Watercolour' at Awliscombe Village Hall, from 2-4pm. Visitors £2. All welcome.

Green wedge planning application

■ FOR those local people who were involved in the fight against a planned housing development on the Green Wedge between Seaton and Colyford, we would like to make you aware that Seaton Park (Devon) Ltd are once again submitting a planning application on the land east of Harepath Road, adjacent to the Auction House.

We have successfully opposed their applications three times in recent years, even after going to appeal, with the government planning inspector. Their plans could potentially lead to unwanted urban sprawl in this beautiful area. Additionally, we fear for our local infrastructure, i.e. schools, doctors, dentists etc, as we already have a large housing development in progress on the Tesco site.

For those who would like to view this application go to the EDDC website, planning and look up application no. 15/2188/MOUT. Closing date for comments to EDDC is set at the 27th October.

Option 'C' for Seaton

■ AS a "newish" resident to Seaton (two years ago now), and moving here because we identified Seaton as an up-and-coming place with a full range of different activities and entertainment at the Gateway, I would like to encourage the fair people of Seaton to vote for Option C in the forthcoming referendum relating to the possible Town Hall refurbishment.

Option C, as well as many other citizens young and old of Seaton agree, would make the Town Hall a hub for the community as well as continuing to encourage more people far and wide to visit and enjoy the shows, beam backs [live broadcasts], markets etc.

The other options do not bear thinking about!

Volunteers needed at Seaton Tramway

One of Seaton's leading tourist attractions has launched a volunteer recruitment drive.

Under the slogan of "Fulfil your dream, become a member of our team" Seaton Tramway is looking to boost its numbers as it prepares for an exciting era with a new terminus on the horizon.

Reliable, friendly and enthusiastic individuals are asked to come forward. There is a particular need for "meeters and greeters" but plenty of other roles too.

There are a few perks involved, and a spokesperson said: "Becoming a volunteer for Seaton Tramway means that you can enjoy benefits such as a meal voucher each day you work, unlimited free travel on the tramway for your family and friends, and discounts in our gift shop and café."

Seaton resident Geoff Sharpe (pictured) became a volunteer driver 13 years ago.

The former senior lecturer in adult education at University of Bristol moved to Seaton with his family after retiring. He has always been interested in public transport be it trains, buses or whatever, and said: "We knew about the tramway, having ridden on it in the mid 1980s when on holidays."

He approached tramway bosses and asked if they were looking for volunteer drivers. The answer was "yes" and Geoff started training.

The course was for eight hours a day for two weeks and, as the saying goes, he has never looked back.

Seaton Tramway has a mix of paid and volunteer drivers.

Geoff said: "I was deemed suitable because I lived locally and could be called at short notice."

"I'm actually the oldest driver and I am often paired with the oldest tram.

"I'm sure the engineers have a book on who is going to break down first, the tram or me."

Summing up his role, he continued: "It is a lovely group of people to work with, and it is nice to meet the punters."

There is a need for "meeters and greeters" at both ends and for coach parties plus roles in the ticket office, shop and restaurant.

Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer at Seaton Tramway is asked to call Sue on 01297 203 75 or email sue@tram.co.uk

Three arrested in drugs operation

POLICE officers from the Exeter, East and Mid Devon Proactive team, along with the Honiton's Neighbourhood Police Team and the Road Crime Unit, carried out a successful drugs operation in the town which led to the arrest of three individuals.

The individuals were arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the supply of a Class A substance and money laundering. As a result, all three have been bailed pending further enquiries with two persons being given bail conditions not to enter Devon.

Ongoing proactive work will continue as local policing teams look to target those suspected of supplying or using of drugs in the area. The operation was carried out on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 20th.

EAST DEVON BRANCH

Remember, remember...your cat during fireworks season

Cats Protection has issued advice to local owners to help keep pet cats safe during the fireworks season.

Whilst the celebrations can be great fun for people, cats can be left stressed out, confused or injured by fireworks.

Apart from the obvious physical damage suffered through accidental contact with fireworks, cats can be badly affected by fireworks noise and lights.

Possible behavioural problems as a result of fear and stress could include house soiling or excessive grooming, whilst there is also the danger of a pet cat running away and potentially not returning home.

A few simple precautions can help owners to keep their cat out of harm's way:

- Keep your cat in after dark and ensure he has access to a litter tray
- Try to reduce outside noise by keeping windows shut and curtains drawn. Playing soothing music or having the TV on may also help. Try not to reinforce fearful behaviour by soothing and reassuring a cat that is looking anxious
- While cats like to be settled in a cosy, familiar territory such as a comfy bed or favourite chair, when feeling scared they need safe places to hide. Ensure they can exhibit this natural behaviour by providing access to a hiding place, such as under the bed, an igloo-style cat bed or something simple like a cardboard box
- Make sure all doors and windows are securely closed to prevent your cat from escaping the home
- A Pheromone plug-in diffuser such as Feliway® can be used to decrease anxiety and spraying and can have a beneficial effect in calming a cat during fireworks. However, you must start using it a couple of weeks before 5 November to maximise the benefit. It should be sited in the room in which your cat chooses to rest. Please speak to your vet for more information

If you are having your own bonfire night celebration this year, then consider:

- Buying hand-held cascading fireworks rather than the noisier varieties
- Holding a 'silent' fireworks display – many companies now offer quiet or almost silent fireworks – giving you the same spectacle without the loud bangs
- Keeping fireworks and bonfire displays as far away from homes as possible, to minimise any adverse effects on animals indoors, although bear in mind the effect these displays will have on wild animals
- Check bonfires before lighting them to ensure that no small animals are sleeping inside

see you there

Please visit our website www.otterytarbarrels.co.uk

Thursday 5th November 2015

Not just a tradition more a way of life.

Children's Barrels from 4.00pm – Adult Barrels from 7.30pm

Lighting of Bonfire from 6.30pm

THOSE who visit Ottery St Mary on 5th November find it hard to understand what drives the townspeople to carry flaming tar barrels through the streets.

Eighteen barrels are carried throughout the day. Young boys start the event at 4pm, at Canaan Way, with small barrels, then youths and women with medium barrels and as the evening goes by, the men of the town parade with the 'gert big unz'. Traditionally, the tar barrels are lit in a strict order at the town's public houses and other notable sites, with the biggest barrel being carried in the Square at around midnight.

The barrels used today are selected from all over the country and have many layers of special tar coated around the inside of the barrel. Straw and paper is placed inside the barrel to help the lighting process and the melting tar does the rest.

Children's and Ladies Barrels

The Barrels are 'rolled' under the supervision of the Barrel Sub Committee and start at 4.00pm in the following order on Thursday 5th November from the following locations and last for approximately thirty minutes:

Children's Barrels:

1. Canaan Way – By Car Park (4pm)
2. The Mason's Arms (4.30pm)
3. The Institute (5pm)
4. Plume of Feathers (5.30pm)
5. The Square (6pm)
6. The Square (6.45pm)

Ladies Barrels:

1. King's Arms Hotel – Held King's end of Sandhill St (7.30pm)
2. Lamb & Flag (8pm)
3. Plume of Feathers (8.30pm)

Men's Tar Barrels

The Men's Tar Barrels start at 7.30pm in the following order and last for approximately thirty minutes.

1. Half Moon – Intermediate – Yonder Street/Bridge (7.30pm)
2. Plume of Feathers – Yonder Street/Bridgefield (8pm)
3. Mason's Arms – Yonder Street/Jesu Street (8.45pm)
4. The Five Bells – Intermediate – Yonder/Jesu Street (9.15pm)
5. The London Hotel – Held in the Square (9.45pm)
6. The Factory – Lower Mill Street (10.15pm)
7. The Volunteer – Held Broad Street (11pm)
8. The Lamb and Flag – Yonder/Jesu Street (11.30pm)
9. The Square – (Midnight)

The Bonfire

The giant bonfire will stand on St Saviours Meadow and is lit on the evening of the Carnival by the Carnival Vice President Mrs J M Lovell.

The bonfire is an integral part of the annual Carnival and has many sites throughout its history.

Three weeks before the carnival, all manner of material is collected from the community to build the bonfire. The sight of the first fully laden tractor and trailer seems to herald the coming of the carnival and in turn generates a bout of communal pruning. On the week before the carnival, the bonfire is finalized and usually stands about 35ft high with a girth of around 50ft. A Guy competition is set up for the children of the community and a winner is selected for placing on the bonfire.

On Carnival day the ceremonial Guy is placed on top of the bonfire and in the evening, the Carnival Vice President sets a flaming torch to the base and all enjoys a spectacle of flame.

Traffic

Road closures from 5pm Nov 5th different car park this year half way along Barrack Road no traffic past this point. no drop off or turning on this road. Coach and Car Park at Otter Nurseries. Car Park at the Cricket Club access from West Hill Road. Many roads leading to the town are designated clearways and are all signed.

Safety

Understand what you are attending before deciding to attend. The streets get very crowded and the barrels run in the streets, there are no barriers. The event is not suitable for small children or for persons with limited mobility.

Street Marshals will be in attendance to control crowds and assist the public, where areas become too crowded marshals will restrict spectators moving into those areas. The St John Ambulance will be in attendance along with attendance from the other emergency services.

Above all we want people to enjoy themselves but all those attending must realise they do so at their own risk if you are not sure what to expect visit our website: www.otterytarbarrels.co.uk or type in "Tar Barrels" on any search engine.

Eden Garden Fencing & Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.al-environmental.com

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden

Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVERGREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Lindy Parry Podiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Hypnosis can help with your motivation to make changes in your life.

FINDING the motivation to change means keeping up your effort consistently, when it would be easy to give up. It involves doing everything possible to achieve your changed goals.

Regardless of what you want to change, a habit, a fear or even an emotion, from weight to exercise and from creativity to the boardroom, hypnosis can help.

Motivation to change begins with the three D's. The first D stands for direction. Before you can begin the process of change, you must first consider the different directions you can go in your life, and set your achievable goals out clearly. You could continue your life as it is now, make immediate and dramatic changes, or take a slower route to change, either way setting a time-frame helps.

The second D represents decision. With these three choices of direction, you must decide on one direction in which to go. No directions is necessarily right or wrong, better or worse, they're simply your choices. Your choice will dictate what changes in your life and the amount of time and effort you put into those changes.

The third D stands for dedication. Once you've made your decision, you must dedicate yourself to it. If your decision is to make significant changes in your life, whether quickly or slowly, then this last step will determine whether those changes are going to succeed.

Your decision to change will then become a top priority in your life. Only by being completely dedicated to your direction and decision will you ensure that you have the motivation you will need to achieve your change goals.

Clinical and cognitive behavioural Hypnotherapy can help you set out these clear goals and help you stick to your plan helping you stay focused and succeed.

LOOK GOOD FEEL GREAT

Become Balanced

Melanie Philip

WHY AM I IN PAIN?

THE idea that pain means injury or damage is deeply ingrained within our consciousness.

Of course, if the pain starts when one is engaged in physical activity its difficult not to attribute the pain to the activity.

But this pervasive concept of the vulnerability of the back, of ease of injury, is nothing less than a medical catastrophe for the general public.

We now have an army of semi disabled men and women whose lives are significantly restricted by the fear of doing further damage or bringing on the dreaded pain again.

One often hears: "Im afraid of hurting myself again, so im going to be very careful what i do". In good faith idea has been fostered by the medical profession for years. It has been assumed that neck, shoulder, back and buttock pain is due to injury or disease of the spine and associated with structures or incompetence of the muscles and ligaments surrounding these structures without scientific validation of these diagnostic concepts. Melanie Philip said: "My work in the field of Bowen has brought me gratifying success in the treatment of these disorders based on a very different observation. The majority of these pain syndromes are the result of a condition in the muscles, nerve, tendons and ligaments brought on by Tension".

One of the primary objectives in Bowen is to create an unwind effect through the soft tissue by using gentle rolling type moves over specific areas. This has the potential to address the accumulated tension holistically and to set up the process of healing and repair."

West of England Laser Centre

Twas the knife before Christmas

IF you are considering eyelid surgery to remove excess skin or fat and freshen and rejuvenate your appearance ready for New Year then Christmas period offers excellent recovery period and 'hideaway' time ready for a fresher, younger (yet still natural) appearance.

Excess skin and fat is surgically removed, usually from the outside, using natural skin creases, leaving no visible scar. This can be combined with laser skin resurfacing, or injection treatments, to remove facial lines.

Surgery is performed at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital by a Consultant Oculoplastic Surgeon, who specialises in plastic surgery around the eye and who also holds an NHS Consultant post. In addition the Consultant is fully trained in the use of lasers for other skin problems such as removal of fine lines/wrinkles, birthmarks, age/sun spots, moles, thread veins, excess hair and tattoos. East Devon Sport Therapy & General Injury Clinic

East Devon Sports Therapy is based in Seaton and specialises in sports and general injuries with a client age ranging from 8-98. Bringing in a wide range of clientele from all over the country, our client base includes top end athletes from GB and other national sporting teams right down to grass route level, with specific rehabilitation for each individual's needs. If you have never been a sports person that doesn't matter! Any physical injury from any background can be treated, whether it's arthritis or a strained shoulder. All of the latest equipment and top techniques are used to rehabilitate your injuries back to full fitness.

About Laser Therapy (LLLT)

Low level laser therapy (LLLT) is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries to increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain. The effects are photochemical (like photosynthesis in plants). When the correct intensity and treatment times are used, red and near infrared light reduces oxidative stress and increases ATP. This improves cell metabolism and reduces inflammation. LLLT is popularly used for acute and chronic pain on soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, post operation recovery and general body aches. LLLT users include British and US military, premier division football teams, Olympic teams, Formula 1, national rugby and cricket teams.

RS Footscan

This system offers analysis of walking and/or running over the RS footscan mat with over 4000 sensors embedded into it to gain in-depth analysis of your foot positions, pressure and force distributed during the motion, in both 2D and 3D. The advanced software allows automatic division of the foot into specific regions. This allows force and pressure distribution within these areas to be analysed and associated with certain foot mechanics and functions. Force & pressure distribution in all regions of the foot can be analysed in graphical format, allowing insight into force & pressure in both localised and general areas under the foot during the stance phase. Once this information is achieved we are able to prescribe custom made orthotics to suit your individual needs. During gait analysis you will also be filmed and implemented into a very specific computer programme to analyse the angles of your hip, knee and ankles, as well as looking at stride length, pronation and body positioning whilst walking or running.

East Devon Sports Therapy & General Injury Clinic

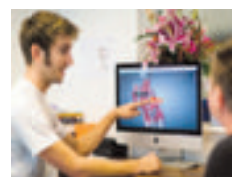

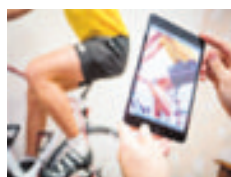

The only clinic within 100 mile radius using the same laser therapy system (LLLT) as the olympic and top international sports teams for photobiomodulation.

When cells are stressed, Nitric Oxide inhibits oxygen consumption by mitochondrial cytochrome c oxidase. This reduces production of a protein called ATP. LLLT displaces Nitric Oxide from cytochrome c oxidase thereby reducing inflammation and restoring ATP production, in turn allowing tissue to heal quicker and relieve pain completely drug free.

Other users of the same laser system include Harvard Medical School, NASA researchers, US NavyRAF, British Army, BUPA and many more.

Very happy to be sponsoring Alex Lane for his international badminton career. Alex is currently ranked number 4 in England for mens singles, his past results include Euro junior champion, 4th place at the youth Olympics, he's competed in world junior championships and just last week won his first senior title at the Slovakian international. His future goals are to compete in the commonwealths and Olympic Games, be ranked number 1 in England and top 10 in the world and we are pleased to be part of his journey!

Recently Guy attended the laser HQ in Chesham to trial the only laser bed in the UK. Currently being used by the Brazilian Olympic teams and other top sports clubs, for enhanced endurance, performance and lowering the effect of DOMS. The bed has been trialled for numerous tasks one showing that it works better and more effectively than ice baths! Other uses include pain relief, weight loss and much more! We hope to be trialling this equipment in our clinic for sporting, arthritis and other soft tissue injuries.

STAG remembers WWI

SHUTE THEATRE AND ARTS GUILD'S 2015 production will be a commemoration of the First World War. Director Elisabeth Miller says: "Two years ago I was asked by the Chairman of Kilming-ton Royal British Legion if I would consider putting on a play during the four-year period of Centenary commemorations. The obvious choice was R.C. Sheriff's gripping and moving piece Journey's End and the STAG Committee backed it with enthusiasm".

The play has become a classic illustration of life in the front line in the First World War. A strong cast will recreate the style and standards of the period with the tension, tears and humour of a group of men living on the edge of mortal danger.

You will be drawn in to share the intimate relationships and friendships of the group with all their strengths and weaknesses.

Don't miss this very special presentation.

Tickets available at: Archway Bookshop, Axminster 01297 33595; Hurford Stores, Kilminster 01297 33203; Frank Property, Seaton 01297 24022; The Little Shop, Colyton 01297 551374, or on-line at www.shutetheatreandartsguild.org.uk

A 'Sweet' firework night

THE OLD INN at Kilminster is hosting its annual Bonfire night celebrations, this will be the 6th year that the Old Inn has hosted the event. The evening starts with the bars opening at 6pm with a range of real ales all at £3 per pint. Sausage and Mash is served from a hot buffet in the skittle alley and music is provided this year by Adam Sweet.

It's a great night of Bangers and Mash with a variety of sausages available, the kids can get involved too with sparklers and soup is served for those who need really warming up.

No bonfire is lit, the pub has after all got to look after its brand new thatch, but fireworks are a must and are set off from 9pm in the field at the rear of the pub. Parking is available and there is more parking in the village. Entrance is free and it is hoped everybody will enjoy the discounted ales and sausage supper before enjoying the fireworks.

It promises to be a very enjoyable night, more details can be found online at www.oldinnkilminster.co.uk

OCTOBER is proving to be a very busy and successful month for music at The David Hall.

Events started on Saturday 3rd when we welcomed CoCo and The Butterfields for the first time. A nearly full house really enjoyed this 'Chance to Dance' event, which had the majority of the audience on their feet throughout the performance by this excellent band from Canterbury. CoCo and The Butterfields have secured a large following and they will certainly be back with us in the not too distant future.

Saturday 10th was another great night – and very different to the CoCo gig - when we welcomed back singer/songwriter, Steve Tilston. Steve was joined by ex-BBC Radio Bristol presenter and harmonica virtuoso, Keith Warmington. This brilliant evening featured a selection from Steve's vast repertoire and he again proved why he is still one of the best performers on the circuit.

On Saturday 17th a fairly small audience really enjoyed the first-ever visit to South Petherton by the duo, Winter Wilson. Dave and Kip are multi-talented and both possess clear and powerful voices. A performance of mainly self-penned material, with the odd classic cover thrown in, was the perfect mix, and their performance was appreciated by all.

On Sunday 18th the music took a totally different direction with another visit from the classical ensemble, the Divertimento String Quartet. They attracted a good-sized audience who have requested more concerts of this type. This we will certainly try to arrange!

Music came to an end for the month with a performance from the amazing Kora player from Senegal - Seckou Keita. Wow! A hundred people were totally mesmerised and charmed by his truly outstanding performance. Nights get no better than this! Seckou tuned his 22 string instrument quicker than most guitarists and then performed a long set which was jaw-dropping in both its quality and complexity of the material. Seckou was supported by a young lady from North Wales called Gwyneth Glyn. The Welsh language has never sounded better! Hopefully, Seckou will be back in 2017!

November will bring us four high-quality, but very diverse, music gigs.

Firstly, on Friday 6th, the totally unique FB Pocket Orchestra will perform. This multi-talented trio explores the music of the period, 1900 to 1930 – including Jazz, Classical, Country and Blues. I have seen this band and know that the audience will be impressed and charmed in equal measure by both their performance and their material.

Friday 13th will see the return of one of our most popular bands - Gigspanner. Fronted by Steeleye Span's master fiddler, Peter Knight, their tracks will include many from their riveting new album, Layers of Ages. Gigspanner's army of fans will ensure this will be another well-attended event and we look forward to an impressive gig.

On Saturday 21st, the wonderful Martyn Joseph returns to The David Hall. Martyn is a mean guitar player who has developed a unique percussive style. This is teamed with a powerful show-stopping voice that has earned him the title of 'The Welsh Springsteen'. This tour marks the release of Martyn's new album. He is a performer like no other and a sell-out event is highly likely.

Musically, November at The Hall will end on Saturday 28th when the legendary band, Lindisfarne, will be re-visited with a performance of The Lindisfarne Story. This great show features former members Billy Mitchell and Ray Laidlaw and consists of not only acoustic versions of classic songs but also behind-the-scenes stories, all illustrated with archive video and stills. This show toured in 2014 and was a total sell-out. If you intend to come along, please get your tickets very soon!

Thanks to everyone for their brilliant support of what we put on at The David Hall!

All the very best,
Pete Wheeler, Petherton Arts Trust

Further events at The David Hall in October and November

From Tuesday 27th to Friday 30th October, South Petherton Combined Arts Drama Group will present two one-act plays – Last Tango (in South Petherton), a satirical farce by David Tristram, and Too Long an Autumn, a poignant comedy by Jimmie Chinn.

On Saturday 31st October, Freya – A Viking Saga, which is a family puppet show suitable for children age 4 and over, will take place at 2.30pm.

On Saturday 7th November there will be a Craft Fair from 9.30am to 12.30pm (entry is free) and from 7.30pm, another Film with Food Night – which is certain to be a huge success. This will feature The Second Best Exotic Marigold Hotel. Come as you are, or dress up suitably for the film, and enjoy a delicious, appropriately-themed light supper. Advance booking is required by Wednesday 4th November. Tickets: £10.00. No concessions.

Saturday 14th November brings another opportunity to celebrate the art of poetry with Petherton Poetry Please 2015 and on Friday 20th, Petherton Picture Show will present Suite Francaise, starring Michelle Williams and Kristin Scott-Thomas.

The David Hall's popular monthly Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday 25th, from 10am to 12pm, while Performance Night is scheduled for Friday 27th, at 7.30pm. To perform, please drop an email to folk@chriswatts.org

Finally, at 3pm on Sunday 29th November, Petherton Arts Trust will celebrate the start of Christmas with The David Hall Christmas Tea Party. Enjoy live music, Christmas stalls and children's entertainment. Plus, be part of the countdown for the South Petherton Christmas Lights Switch-on. Entry will be free.

A NAME TO REMEMBER

Lyme Regis' own Joanna Cooke to release debut EP 'Remember Me'

WITH INTERNATIONAL recognition for her high quality vocals among dance music producers and labels in Brazil, the USA and Europe, and 100+ live shows a year in 2014 and 2015 in the South West, popular vocalist Joanna Cooke, Lyme Regis-born and now residing in Plymouth, brings her own recorded music to the fore with the release on October 26th 2015 of her debut EP 'Remember Me'.

Featuring four of her own compositions, 'Remember Me' sees Joanna's expressive and distinctive vocals work the full range of emotions from warm, cultured and classy to heartfelt powerhouse performances. Lead track 'He's My Boy' uses the original vocal from Joanna's demo, recorded at 2am in the darkness of her own front room, and captures the 'first take' special qualities in a fine song.

With production again from Matthew Arundell, the EP follows Joanna's earlier single 'Last June' with musical collaborator Nathan Austin; and guest appearances on other local artists' records, which prompted the comment of "the superb Joanna Cooke" from BBC Introducing Devon.

The Remember Me EP is available in digital download (iTunes, Amazon etc) and CD formats.

For more details, a list of upcoming gigs, and to keep up-to-date with Joanna, visit joannacooke.co.uk or like her Facebook page at www.facebook.com/joannacookemusic.

The future of jazz is here

TWO OF the brightest young stars in Britain's jazz firmament will be showcasing their talents at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, October 30th. Amy Roberts and Richard Exall are both multi-instrumentalists who perform an eclectic mix of high-octane music on a range of clarinets, saxophones and flute. Their latest album Why Not? has been getting rave reviews from critics such as Just Jazz magazine who judged it "Terrific [...] right from the first note to the last".

Their set includes popular standards and vocals as well as more unusual material inspired by early jazz/swing and Latin music, to provide an entertaining programme that crosses musical styles and boundaries.

James Redmond to headline Comedy Grove

THE GATEWAY in Seaton's Comedy Grove returns this Friday, October 30th, with a well-known face from TV headlining a top quality line-up.

Topping the bill, James Redmond is a dry, slick and subtle stand up who delivers unexpected twists and turns during his set as he deconstructs his art. He has a track record as a model and actor and is best known for seminal roles in Hollyoaks (C4) and Casualty (BBC 1) as well as having presented CD UK alongside Cat Deeley and appeared as a guest on Never Mind The Buzzcocks (BBC 2), Celebrity Who Wants To Be A Millionaire; (ITV 1) and Soccer AM (Sky 1).

Tony Coward is a rapidfire gag merchant with an arsenal full of one-liners. For laughs-per-minute he's a tough act to beat! His quick wit has made him a sought after act and comper by comedy clubs and promoters across the UK and even for gigs worldwide. Something of a Twitter sensation, Tony's jokes turn up in all sorts of places, from greetings cards to The Times newspaper, even if you've never heard of him there's a good chance that you'll have laughed at one of his gags.

Sally-Anne Hayward is charming and popular, with a winning brand of autobiographical humour. She'll take you on a journey through her slightly eccentric world, including insights into the female psyche and her compulsion to send off spoof job applications.

An experienced and versatile comedy performer,

Matt Green performed in the prestigious showcase The Comedy Zone in Edinburgh 2005, and was placed second in the Hackney Empire New Act Awards in the same year. He's now a regular on the comedy circuit, performing in clubs across the UK and the world with a high energy mix of personal stories, observations and sharp audience interaction.

Pulman's Property View

GRADE II LISTED GEORGIAN PROPERTY, IN COLYTON – GUIDE PRICE: £300,000 TO £350,000

FOR Sale by Auction on the 4th November (unless sold prior) in conjunction with Clive Emson Auctioneers at the St Mellion International Resort, Saltash near Plymouth. GUIDE PRICE: £300,000 to £350,000.

Garton House is a Grade II Listed, partially attached, substantial Georgian property situated close to the town centre of Colyton, within a few hundred metres level walk of most of the town's amenities. Although the property is in need of modernisation and repair, the house could make a very attractive, spacious family home. The accommodation provides four good sized bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor, two reception rooms, spacious hallway, kitchen and w.c. on the ground level. Outside, to one side and continuing to the back of the property is a gated driveway providing parking for several vehicles and a garage. This is unusual for a property so close to town. On the other side of the house, accessed from the dining room is a very pretty and well stocked part-walled garden. And finally, behind the garage, a door leads to a further small enclosed garden area.

Colyton is a pretty little market town (more like a village) with a small town centre offering a good range of daily needs including two convenience stores, fish and chip shop, butcher, hairdressers, post office, small stationers, pharmacy, health centre, garden centre, library and a few other individual shops. There is a primary school in the town and the well regarded Colyton Grammar School is just over a mile away. A beautiful Church is at the heart of the town and there is an interesting variety of architecture. The Audi RS 6 and RS 7 'performance' models

▲ The Audi RS 6 Avant performance

A NEW peak is about to be reached in the Audi RS range as RS 6 Avant and RS 7 Sportback 'performance' models join their existing and already formidable counterparts and ramp power up to a colossal 605PS and torque to up to 750Nm. Despite doing even greater justice to the RS badge by translating their 45PS and 50Nm output advantages into a supercar-challenging sprint time of just 3.7 seconds, the new RS performance models retain the same best-in-class fuel economy and efficiency figures as their 'standard' equivalents.

Available to order in the UK from November, and scheduled for first deliveries here next February, the RS 6 Avant performance will be priced at £86,000 OTR and the RS 7 Sportback performance at £91,600 OTR. The 4.0-litre TFSI engine at the heart of both bolsters its 605PS output with a 700Nm torque peak which can be temporarily increased by the driver to 750Nm by way of an overboost function.

The two RS high-performance models sprint from 0 to 62mph in just 3.7 seconds, an improvement of 0.2 seconds over the respective standard RS model, and need just 12.1 seconds to accelerate from 0 to 124mph, giving them a 1.4-second advantage. In each case the governed 155mph top speed can be increased as an option to 174mph, or 189mph if the dynamic package plus is specified.

Despite the 45PS output boost, the sonorous V8 biturbo power unit returns up to 29.4mpg in the RS 6 Avant performance and 29.7mpg in the RS 7 Sportback performance, corresponding to 223 and 221 g/km of CO₂.

Engineering expertise gathered by Audi and quattro GmbH over many years of RS model development has been invested in the upgraded 4.0 TFSI, from the specific engine management system with increased rpm and boost pressure to the Audi cylinder on demand (COD) system, which only activates four of the eight cylinders when under part load.

The standard eight-speed tiptronic transmission has been designed to maximise the potential of the even more extreme engine in both the new RS 6 Avant performance and the new RS 7 Sportback performance. The driver can choose between the modes D and S or change gears manually either by tapping the selector lever or by using the shift paddles on the RS multifunction sport leather steering wheel. In manual mode, a shift indicator in the driver information system or optional head-up display indicates the rev limit.

Quattro with sport differential quattro permanent all-wheel drive delivers the power to the road and flexibly distributes torque as needed via the centre differential. In the standard configuration, 40 per cent flows to the front axle and 60 per cent to the rear. The wheel-selective torque control intervenes as necessary. A sport differential acting on the rear axle is also standard, and enables active torque distribution between the inside and outside wheel.

With its dynamic set-up, the standard RS adaptive air suspension lowers the body of the RS 6 Avant performance and RS 7 Sportback performance by 20 millimetres. The integrated damping control varies as a function of the road conditions, driving style and the mode chosen in Audi drive select. As an alternative, the tauter RS sports suspension plus with Dynamic Ride Control (DRC) is also available, and both set-ups can be complemented by optional dynamic steering with a continuously variable steering ratio.

The driver can modulate the function of key components using Audi drive select, including the steering, engine and sound management, the tiptronic transmission and the sport differential. The RS performance models, like the all-new R8 sports car, make the Audi drive select configuration process even quicker and easier by enabling the driver to switch between the auto, comfort, dynamic and individual modes without taking eyes off the road using a special button on the RS multifunction sport leather steering wheel.

In both RS performance models, 21-inch cast aluminium wheels channel the exceptional output with the help of 285/30 tyres in the RS 6 Avant performance and 275/30 tyres in the RS 7 Sportback performance. The four internally ventilated brake discs have a weight-saving wave design, and can be replaced by carbon fibre-ceramic discs as an option.

More dynamic, stylish, practical and refined than ever before

THE reinvention of the MINI brand continues apace with the launch of the all-new MINI Convertible. With major refinements against its predecessor, the car features a striking new design and significant enhancements to make open-topped MINI motoring even more dynamic, stylish and practical.

Officially on sale in the UK from March 2016, it follows hugely successful model launches in 2004 and 2009. After 12 years of sales success, it remains the only premium soft-top four-seater convertible in the small car segment, and the UK continues to be the largest market worldwide for the new MINI Convertible.

Brand new features include a fully electric roof that is quieter and smoother than the previous model, a fully integrated rollover protection system and more rear space than ever before.

A striking new exterior and interior design ensures the new MINI Convertible is unmistakably MINI, whilst showcasing a blend of sporting flair and elegant dynamism.

The all-new MINI Cooper Convertible and Cooper D Convertible are 3,821 mm long, with the MINI Cooper S Convertible 3,850 mm long. All models are 1,727 mm wide, 1,415 mm high and have a wheelbase of 2,495 mm.

Those dimensions have increased compared with the outgoing model, with 98 mm extra length, 44 mm extra width and 1 mm extra height. The wheelbase is 28 mm longer and track width has also grown a further 42 mm at the front and 34 mm at the rear.

The increase in dimensions has enhanced comfort levels and freedom of movement in all four seats. The two front seats have a wider range of adjustment, while rear passengers benefit from easier access, more headroom, a longer seat surface and improved lateral support. The design of the new rear more clearly defines the two individual seats.

Day-to-day practicality has also improved. Smart design and interior packaging means luggage volume has expanded by around 25 per cent to 215 litres with the roof closed and 160 litres with it folded down.

A high level of standard equipment across the range includes MINI Visual Boost Radio with a 6.5-inch screen, MINI Connected, Bluetooth connectivity with USB audio, Rear Parking Distance Control and a Reversing Camera.

Personalisation is once again at the heart of the new MINI Convertible. Options include an industry-first Union Jack design woven into the MINI Yours fabric roof. There are two new exterior colours – Caribbean Aqua and Melting Silver – with a new Chester leather in Malt Brown available for the interior.

A three-car range will be available from launch – the MINI Cooper Convertible, MINI Cooper D Convertible and MINI Cooper S Convertible – with two petrol engines and one diesel. On-the-road pricing starts at just £18,475.

The new MINI Convertible: open-topped motoring in style

The most important element of any convertible is its roof, and MINI has gone to great lengths to further improve the quality of this key component. Fully electric, the roof of the new MINI Convertible is suitable for year-round use and has been optimised for the very best heat and acoustic insulation. Quieter than ever before, when opened it folds neatly behind the rear seats. The front roof section can also be retracted by up to 40 cm, and this can be carried out at any speed.

For a quick reaction to sudden changes in the weather, the soft-top can be opened and closed at speeds of up to 18 mph. The two operations are activated by means of a toggle switch on the front roof frame. When the vehicle is stationary, it can also be operated using a button on the remote key. Both operations take just 18 seconds. A button located in the driver's door trim allows for simultaneous opening and closing of all four side windows.

Intelligent UK drivers say yes to life changing technology

BRAKE, the road safety charity, is urging the government to take steps towards introducing intelligent speed adaptation (ISA) on UK roads, after a survey carried out on behalf of the charity found almost two-thirds (63%) of drivers would be willing to let this ground-breaking technology automatically restrict their speed.

ISA technology uses GPS combined with a digital map of speed limits to keep vehicles to the posted speed limit. This technology could potentially make other speed control measures unnecessary and ensure all drivers comply with speed limits at all times, preventing thousands of needless deaths and injuries.

A further quarter (23%) of drivers said they would be willing to have 'advisory ISA' fitted, a system which alerts them when they are over the speed limit, but does not automatically reduce speed.

That leaves only one in seven (14%) of drivers unwilling to make use of the technology in any form.

Controlled trials of ISA have predicted voluntary ISA could reduce road deaths by 21%, and mandatory ISA could reduce deaths by 46%. Advisory ISA is far less effective, but could still reduce fatal crashes by 5% [1]. This could save 85 lives a year.

The survey found overwhelming support for the introduction of 'telematics', with almost three quarters (73%) of UK drivers say they would be likely or very likely to have telematics fitted in their vehicles, given the option.

Brake calls for the government to take full advantage of ISA, by producing a digital speed limit road map of the country, requiring vehicle manufacturers to equip all vehicles with ISA technology, and making ISA mandatory, introducing it with an effective marketing campaign to explain its purpose.

Gary Rac, director of communications and campaigns at Brake, said: "ISA represents a game-changer for road safety, with the potential to make all other speed enforcement unnecessary and prevent nearly half the devastating deaths on our roads. As speed is at least an aggravating factor in almost all road crashes, this technology could make our roads much safer for everyone, and prevent thousands of senseless casualties every year if rolled out systematically. As yet, there has not been the political will to roll out ISA despite its potential. However, as these results clearly demonstrate, the willingness exists among the driving public to use ISA to make speeding on UK roads a thing of the past."

Local Sport – football round-up

by Howard Larcombe

Tigers settling nicely into top five slot

Carnival time as Hippos return to top – Big cup win for Hawks

AXMINSTER TOWN 0 APPLEDRE 0
SW Peninsula League D1 (E)

WITH both teams at the top end of the table Saturday's game at Tiger Way was always likely to be a close affair and so it proved.

Axminster started well and Peter Knox had a good shot in the 12th minute which was deflected just wide of the post.

Soon after Liam Cleal was clean through on goal with just keeper Joe Tickle to beat but he narrowed the angle and made a smart save.

Appledore responded and forced Scott Wells-Burr into a fine save, the ball rebounded to an Appledore striker but the follow up shot hit the crossbar.

The next piece of action saw Jonny Hurford launch a thunderous 30-yard shot which brought a fine save from the visiting keeper.

Just before the break Appledore broke quickly and Wells-Burr was forced in to another fine save to tip the ball over the bar.

Ten minutes after the break James Spiers who seized on this mistake only to be brought down by a defender. Up stepped Beer keeper Michael Westlake who made mistake from the spot.

After the break, and with the wind at their backs, the home side were a different proposition and they equalised in the 66th minute.

Midway through the half a couple of chances forced good saves from Wells-Burr.

Ten minutes from time The Tigers keeper, yet again, denied Appledore with a superb double save. The game then evened out and a share of the spoils was a fair outcome with both goalkeepers in fine form.

Next Saturday the Tigers hit the road with a trip to Coombe Valley where high-flying TEIGNMOUTH lay in wait.

Millwey Rise 4 Silvertown 2
Division Six

THERE are two big reasons Millwey won this match and currently occupy the top spot in the league.

The first is Levi Hoole's insatiable appetite for goals, and secondly, the raw talent of young goalkeeper Nathan Hoole who has made such an important contribution with a string of outstanding saves. This game was no exception.

Levi Hoole opened the scoring after 10 minutes and scored his second from the spot. Nathan Wormsey added a third but even with a three goal advantage they failed to control the game.

They were under sustained pressure from Silvertown who continually carved through the midfield and it came as little surprise when they pulled one back before the break.

Although Hoole completed his hat-trick soon after the turn-around, the visitors kept pressing and were rewarded with a penalty. But Nathan Hoole brought off a great save to push the ball wide, adding to the many other vital interceptions he made throughout the game.

The visitors got their second goal after 80 minutes but Millwey saw out the remaining minutes.

BEER Reserves found out a 2-1 victory at Sandford in a game that was significantly influenced by the goalkeepers – but not in a conventional way!

After a goal less opening half-hour Beer were handed a gift when the Sandford keeper inexplicably threw the ball casually behind his back to Beer striker James Spiers who seized on this mistake only to be brought down by a defender. Up stepped Beer keeper Michael Westlake who made mistake from the spot.

After the break, and with the wind at their backs, the home side were a different proposition and they equalised in the 66th minute.

The hosts continued to dominate and only some fine defensive work by MoM Prior, Sam White and Joe Adkin kept the Fishermen in the game.

The turning point came in the 75th minute when Sandford were awarded a penalty after an innocuous challenge by Adkin. This time it was the Sandford keeper who stepped up to take the penalty but his scuffed shot was saved by Westlake.

The Fishermen took heart from this and Spiers scored the winner with a header from a free kick.

The next home game at the Furzebrake is Beer Albion Reserves v Upwman Athletic the match sponsor is Beer Head Bistro.

PLAYING down the slope with the wind at their backs Axminster took the lead after 17 minutes from a goal by Elliot Bastin.

Further goals from Sam Burke and Nicky Land saw the Tiger 3-0 up at the interval. Despite having the elements against them Ax dominated the second-half.

Elliot Bastin completed his hat trick, Reece Best made it six and Stephen Wooloff added another to complete an emphatic victory.

AFTER a brave fight against their mid table hosts Millwey went down by a single goal scored midway through the first half.

Player-Manager Dan Murnane was highly delighted with his team's display especially Dave Bridges who covered every inch of the field and Henry Alexander-Mitchell who fashioned himself several good opportunities.

FORTY EIGHT members of the Senior Section attended the "Hassle" tournament on Monday.

Sixteen teams of three took to the course in this Texas Scramble event where there are no restrictions on the number of drives by any player.

Ken Trussell's team and the trio led by Nobby Hodder were neck and neck up to the 18th and the birdie putt by the former team put them ahead by a mere 0.16 of a shot after the handicap adjustments.

However, the final team led by Nick Hill stormed into the lead eclipsing Ken Trussell's team by more than two shots.

Result: 1st Nick Hill, Geoff Dean & Barrie Heath 58.66, 2nd Ken Trussell, Des Denning & Chris Basterfield 61.17, 3rd Nobby Hodder, Mike Mosser & Roger Withers 61.33.

With Wednesday washed out 42 Seniors returned on Friday to compete in a three-man Bowmaker competition with all members of the team required to score on the six easier holes.

The early starters appeared to have the best of conditions as they claimed the win and runner-up spot.

Four teams managed to return scores of par or better which is quite an achievement in this format.

Result: 1st Fred Oliver; Brian Marsh & Ron Sutherland 76pts, 2nd Brian Denning, Mike Mosser & Sid Crisp 73, 3rd

Chris Basterfield, Barrie Heath & Nick George 73, 4th Andy Beale, Bert Robinson & Colin Ireland 72.

CHARD A YEVOIL & SHERB 1
STILL no win in four league outings for the 2nd XI, but Chard defended with great character for this hard earned point.

Defenders James Spurdle, Jason Goddard made some timely interceptions and tackles and Arthur Critchley, promoted from the 3rds, showed great composure at the heart of the defence ensuring Berge Balian in goal was rarely called into action in the first half.

Chard grew in confidence as the half went on and began to put together some promising attacks with George Retter and Trevor Goss threading through passes to Dan Stone and Harry Felgate on the right and Harvey Denning posing a threat from the left wing.

The opening goal was the catalyst for Chard's best spell. When Steve Mahoney picked out Stone his turn and shot was parried but Felgate followed up and scored from close range.

Chard continued to hold their lead until the final quarter when a cross shot squeezed through Balian's pads and fell to Yeovil's centre forward to score from a yard out.

Superb Summer League season

THE Ladies C team finished champions of Division Six in the Exeter & District League in only their second season and the mixed C team were runners-up in Division Five of the East Devon League.

Captains Teri Murphy and Martin White have encouraged new and less experienced club members to join their teams and benefit from the fun of competing against other clubs in the local leagues with great enthusiasm and success.

The Ladies A team finished second in Division One of the E&D League and was the only one to beat league champions Torquay. The Ladies A and B teams have started their Winter League campaigns in Division One and Two respectively, both having been champions of their divisions for the past two years.

Junior activities continue at all levels with some talented teenagers competing and winning events in the club's annual tournament and representing the club in league matches.

At the younger end, 'Tot' and 'Mini' tennis coaching sessions run every week.

This week, the half term junior tennis camps are held on Thursday (10.30am to 12.30pm) and Saturday from 10am to noon.

CAMBORNE 46 CHARD 0
South West Division One

CHARD failed to get on the scoreboard or take any points from a game for the first time this season.

With several players unavailable, Chard's preparations for this game were dealt another blow when the expected journey time of two and a half hours was extended to nearly four when the team found themselves caught up in the school half term traffic chaos and the kick off was delayed for over an hour.

They found themselves 12-0 down at the interval with the hosts scoring two tries plus one conversion.

Chard contested the game well up to this point but in the second half couldn't cope with the impressive home side who ran in another five tries.

CHARD gave a spirited performance but on the day were beaten by the better side.

The experienced James Herbert and youngster Benn Mainwaring each scored a try for Chard and Sam Moulard added one conversion and a penalty goal.

Herbert commented after the game that Chard really missed not having a specialist scrum half in their ranks and the team were somewhat handicapped by the late loss of some players which left them short on the bench. Despite the loss Chard could not be faulted for effort and commitment.

THIS was a second successive victory for the rejuvenated 3rd xv who scored three tries in each half.

The tries came from Jock Mckerrow, Chris Bond, Stuart Gold with the Carrell family sharing the last three with dad Martin getting one and son Reece scoring two. Stuart Gold added four conversions

Despite the emphatic score line the Chard players were quick to praise the efforts of their opponents who were far better than the scoreline suggests.

THE unbeaten Chard side consolidated their lead at the top of the table.

Chard scored tries through the efforts of Joe Mainwaring and Ollie Harris with Dan Newman adding two penalties and a conversion

Coach Duncan Nicholls was again pleased with the win and praised the impact that Adam Moore made when he came on in the second row in the 2nd half.

Nicholls thought that Chard always looked the better side and but wants his side to play well for the whole match and not just in fits and starts.

Next Saturday there are no games for any of the teams because of the World cup final between New Zealand and Australia but everybody is reminded that the final will be shown in the clubhouse on the big screen.

The club is expecting the clubhouse to be full for the game and the atmosphere should be terrific.

League matches start again on Saturday, November 7th with the 1st xv at home to BIDEFORD (2.15pm ko) - the Vice-President's lunch is also being held that day.

Behind the starting gun was four-time Olympian Jo Pavey. First home for the HR Club was David Hawker in 1:48 which was 12 mins faster than last year while Paula Ferris managed a PB with 1:49 running for the Children's Hospice. Tim Wigram also clocked the same time. They were closely followed across by Tony Peek (2:00) and Sharon Wells (2:01) finishing 17th out of 65 in her category.

Katie Sherjan finished her first half marathon in a very impressive time of 2:28. Alan Rowe 2:22 and Liam Dushynsky 2:32 completed the finishing Honiton line up.

Boyes came home in 4:03 and 2nd in his age group. Michelle Selly had a fantastic time running the half and finished in 2:24.

Black belts flourishing in East Devon

AXMINSTER-BASED tae kwon-do instructor Gerry Waugh is celebrating a second very successful month.

In September five students from his Sidmouth class achieved the highest possible A pass mark at a grading for coloured belts. This was followed in October when six more students gained the prestigious black belt.

Three students from Mr Waugh's Sidmouth class, Billie O'Brien (14), Jaimie O'Brien (16) and Jess Barriball

(13) and three from his Axminster class, Carl Jordan (13), Ethan Huxford (11) and Kyle Williams (11) all underwent rigorous and intensive training over the whole summer to prepare for the test.

Mr Waugh said: "The journey from white belt to black belt takes years. It is both physically and mentally demanding.

Many never get there, but a black belt is a white belt who never quit, someone who survived the challenges, overcame setbacks, kept going when it got tough and put in the effort, dedication and focus to reach the goal.

"I have watched them all grow and mature into confident young people, and am very proud to have helped them reach this achievement."

Tae kwon-do is a relatively modern martial art, founded in South Korea in 1955.

Korea was occupied by Japan for over 30 years in the early 20th century, and so Japanese karate was an influence in the early days, and some similarities remain, but it was later developed by Koreans into a dynamic and distinct martial art practiced by millions worldwide.

Mr Waugh teaches classes in Axminster, Lyme Regis and Sidmouth and also trains with his own instructor, Daren Sainsbury, in Colyton.

Mr Sainsbury also put through four black belt students in October – Sophie Hilton (12), Tim Hilton (56), Scott Westlake (18) and Ben Pushkarev (11).

For more information about free trial classes, call Mr Waugh on 01297 639830 or visit www.TargetTAGB.co.uk
